What's for Breakfast?

February is a month that brings with it an array of breakfast-themed celebrations, making it a time for food enthusiasts to indulge in their morning cravings. Let's take a quick tour of some of these scrumptious occasions.

Hot Breakfast Month in February reminds us of the warmth and comfort that a steaming bowl of oatmeal, a plate of scrambled eggs, or a hearty breakfast burrito can bring to a chilly winter morning. It's a time to appreciate the heartiness of hot breakfast options, even if they take a bit longer to prepare.

Bagel and Lox Day (Feb. 9) caters to lovers of this classic combination. With a bagel as the sturdy base and lox (smoked salmon) as the star, this day is all about the savory and satisfying flavors that have become a breakfast staple for many.

Mardi Gras, which is French for "Fat Tuesday," marks the culmination of the festive Carnival season on February 13. While the day is famous for its lively parades and vibrant masks, it's also an opportunity to savor some delicious breakfast treats. Traditional dishes like beignets and king cakes take center stage, offering a sweet and hearty start to the day.

Fat Tuesday is also Pancake Day, an event celebrated worldwide with fluffy stacks of pancakes drizzled with syrup or piled high with fresh fruits and whipped cream. Observers relish the simple pleasure of this beloved breakfast food.

Finally, Muffin Day (Feb. 20) rounds off the month with a celebration of these handheld treats. Whether you prefer blueberry, chocolate chip, or bran muffins, be sure to indulge in a sweet or savory snack on the go.

Whether you're savoring a fluffy stack of pancakes or nibbling on a warm muffin, these celebrations remind us of the joy that breakfast can bring to our lives.

The Magic of Mardi Gras

Mardi Gras, the vibrant and exhilarating Carnival season celebrated in various parts of the world, is a spectacle of merriment, color, and culture. It typically involves parades, masquerade balls, and the donning of elaborate costumes, offering a unique blend of tradition and modern revelry. Each year, it is a time for people to indulge in festivities and enjoy the spirit of community. In 2024, the celebration begins on January 6. It leads up to Fat Tuesday on February 13—the culmination of the Carnival season.

In 2024, Mardi Gras promises to be an exceptional experience.

While the details of the celebrations vary from place to place, grand parades with intricate floats, live music, and colorful Mardi Gras beads are common features. The heart of Mardi Gras lies in its diverse cultural influences, blending elements of French, Spanish, African, and Creole heritage, which contribute to the rich tapestry of this celebration.

A tasty aspect of Mardi Gras is the king cake, a traditional pastry with a hidden figurine or token inside that brings good luck to the person who discovers it. Vivid, intricate masks and costumes add to the visual spectacle of Mardi Gras, as participants embrace anonymity and the freedom to be anyone they choose for a day.

Whether you're in New Orleans, Rio de Janeiro, or any of the other cities that celebrate Mardi Gras, the joyous atmosphere and sense of unity are universal. Partygoers let loose, enjoy the parades, savor delicious cuisine, and partake in a global festival of life and culture.

But Mardi Gras is more than just a party; it's a colorful expression of tradition, diversity, and the indomitable human spirit. Mark your calendars for Mardi Gras 2024 and prepare to join the revelry!

A Cutting-Edge Hobby

It's not an illusion or a magic trick—sword swallowing is a serious and even ancient art. On February 24, World Sword Swallowers Day, many practitioners will perform free demonstrations of their weird art form.

How does one learn to swallow a sword? Apprentices begin by putting objects of increasing size down their throats: fingers, spoons, paintbrushes, knitting needles, coat hangers, and then swords. Eventually, a swallower's esophagus is so relaxed that the sword travels down the throat and into the stomach. Today it may be a showy act for street performers and circus sideshows, but in ancient India, it was considered a demonstration of divine union with their gods, akin to walking over hot coals. Only a few dozen people worldwide currently risk this dangerous pastime. Luckily, for many, the worst injury they suffer is "sword throat."

Spreading Sunshine

Is there someone in your life who is a perpetual grouch? Are they forever grumpy? Is every day a bad day? February 16 may be your day to help them. It's Do a Grouch a Favor Day.

Hunger is a definite biological cause of grouchiness. Perhaps the best favor you can do for a grouch is bake them a treat or buy them lunch. Some people are grouchy first thing in the morning. The grouch might say they're "not a morning person," but this grouchiness may have a biological cause. Some suffer a groggy period after waking up that is called the "sleep inertia" phase. It takes from five to 30 minutes for a person to feel awake. If someone is an interminable grouch, perhaps the biggest favor you can do for them, and yourself, is leave them alone.

Pucker Up

Valentine's Day always falls on February 14, and many may be happy to see it pass. But in the south of France, people still plant kisses until the Saturday after Valentine's Day.

The residents of Roquemaure call it the Festival of the Kiss, and kiss they do. They smooch from sunup to sundown in honor of their favorite saint, Saint Valentine. Valentine became the patron saint of love when, according to legend, on February 14 around the year 270, he was caught performing illegal marriage ceremonies for

Roman soldiers and was martyred by Roman emperor Claudius II Gothicus.

In 1868, the supposed remains of Saint Valentine were purchased in Rome and transferred to Roquemaure. The French village was renowned for its winemaking, but in 1868, its vines were diseased. Villagers and winemakers believed that the arrival of Saint Valentine's remains would cure their ailing vines. Miraculously, within four years, the vineyards had recovered.

And so, during the Festival of the Kiss, Roquemaure returns to the year 1868. Residents wear costumes from that era, with some even dressing up like monks, nuns, or saints. Horses and carriages clop down the streets. Storefronts boast 19th-century decorations. A market sells traditionally fashioned items. Even the street names are rewritten, bearing the names of France's most lovesick poets and artists.

Everyone drinks wine and kisses until they can't feel their lips. The local winery is named Cave Saint Valentine and produces specialty wines for the occasion. The local post office even gets in on the fun, sealing every letter with a kiss. This is why Roquemaure is known as "La Capitale des Amoureux," the Capital of Lovers.

RESIDENT POETRY

Patience by Pete Kimm

When the physical strength of our life is not growing and the actions of our movements are slowing, don't waste tears, "cause we are not in a race"; just now relax because we are by faith within the spiritual realm of God's grace. So on we may go in the journey of life to a glorious destiny, without any strife. Because the Lord Jesus to this earthly life came,

He suffered and died on the cross of shame. He was buried, rose from the grave, and ascended to glory and is coming again, and calls us by name to the promise of God's eternal redeeming story.

So, as His children we will know his voice;
Now run your eyes on Jesus
And with the saints in Heaven forever rejoice!

REST IN PEACE

Get Ready to LOL

February 8 is Laugh and Get Rich Day. If only it were that easy! Gelotology is the psychological study of laughter, and scientists are still trying to figure out just why we laugh. Laughter involves many different parts of the brain as well as the coordination of many muscles. Laughing 100 times is equal to 15 minutes of exercise on a bike. It's a total body workout, with all the physical and psychological health benefits to boot. So, while laughter may not fill our bank accounts, it certainly enriches our lives.

Connecting the World

On February 4, 2004, the internet changed forever. Harvard freshman Mark Zuckerberg launched Facebook, a website that has transformed the way people socialize and communicate. Facebook has more than three billion active users a month. For many, staying in touch via Facebook, sharing pictures, sending messages, and commenting on friends' posts is preferable to communicating by mail, telephone, or email.

However, a scientific study in 2017 suggested that using Facebook had negative consequences. The more the study participants used Facebook, the worse they felt afterward. Users felt less satisfied with their lives and were lonelier. It seems that direct social contact may still be the best form of interaction of all.

February Birthdays

If you were born between February 1–18, you are an Aquarius, the Water Bearer. Aquarians are loyal and smart humanitarians who want to make a difference in the world. They are energetic, have inquisitive minds, and come up with creative solutions. Those born from February 19–29 are Pisces, the Fish. Like fish, Pisces like to go with the flow in an easygoing manner, but on the inside, they are intuitive, intensely spiritual, and deeply emotional.
